Describe Someone You Know Who Has Recently Moved To A New Place: Sample Answers

Sample Answer 1

Introduction (Covers: Who is he/she?)

- I want to talk about my friend, Ravi, who recently moved to a new city for his job.
- Ravi and I have been close friends since university, and his move has been a significant change for both of us.
- He relocated from our hometown to Bangalore, which was a major shift from the quiet life we were used to.

Describing Your Experience/Opinion/Interest (Covers: What is the new place like?)

- Ravi is a software engineer and had the fantastic opportunity to work with a top tech company in Bangalore.
- The new place he moved to is a modern flat in the city's heart, surrounded by vibrant streets and numerous amenities.
- The main reason for his move was to advance his career and take advantage of the professional growth opportunities in Bangalore.

Key Highlights (Covers: Why did he/she move to a new place?)

- Since moving, Ravi has experienced many changes. He faced the initial challenge of adjusting to the fast-paced city life, which was quite different from our laid-back hometown.
- However, he quickly adapted and now enjoys the diverse culture and the endless activities available in Bangalore.
- One significant positive outcome is that he feels more independent and confident, having settled in a completely new environment on his own.

Conclusion (Covers: Explain whether his/her move had a positive impact on you)

- Ravi's move has had a positive impact on me as well. It encouraged me to consider new opportunities and not be afraid of change.
- Our friendship remains strong despite the distance, and we frequently catch up via video calls.
- Overall, his move has been a successful and enriching experience for both of us.

Sample Answer 2

Introduction (Covers: Who is he/she?)

- I want to talk about my cousin, Priya, who recently moved to a new city to pursue higher studies.
- Priya and I have grown up together, and her move has significantly changed our family.
- She relocated from our hometown in Kerala to Delhi, which is quite a drastic change from the serene backwaters we were used to.

Describing Your Experience/Opinion/Interest (Covers: What is the new place like?)

- Priya is pursuing a master's degree in Economics and has been accepted into a prestigious university in Delhi.
- She moved to a shared apartment near her university, which is surrounded by bustling markets and cultural landmarks.
- The main reason for her move was to access better educational opportunities and to immerse herself in a more dynamic academic environment.

Key Highlights (Covers: Why did he/she move to a new place?)

- Since moving, Priya has experienced many changes. She initially struggled with the fast-paced life and the colder climate, which was a stark contrast to our peaceful and warm hometown.
- However, she soon adapted and now appreciates the vibrant student life and the numerous events around her.
- One significant positive outcome is that she has become more self-reliant and resourceful, managing her studies and living independently.

Conclusion (Covers: Explain whether his/her move had a positive impact on you).

- Priya's move has had a positive impact on me as well. It inspired me to explore possibilities outside my comfort zone and to be open to new experiences.
- Despite the distance, we remain close and often discuss her new life and the exciting things she is learning.
- Overall, her move has been a transformative experience for both of us.

Sample Answer 3

Introduction (Covers: Who is he/she?)

- Let me tell you about my colleague Rajesh, who recently moved to a different city for a job opportunity.
- Rajesh and I have been working together for several years, and his relocation has significantly changed our workplace dynamics.
- He shifted from our office in Mumbai to Pune, which marked a considerable shift from bustling city life to a more laid-back environment.

Describing Your Experience/Opinion/Interest (Covers: What is the new place like?)

- Rajesh is a talented graphic designer who has secured a promising position at a design agency in Pune.
- The new place he moved to is a rented apartment in a serene neighbourhood surrounded by greenery and peaceful streets.
- His move was primarily driven by career advancement prospects and a desire for a better work-life balance.

Key Highlights (Covers: Why did he/she move to a new place?)

- Since his relocation, Rajesh has experienced various adjustments. Initially, he found it challenging to adapt to the slower pace of life and the different cultural nuances of Pune.
- However, he gradually settled in and now enjoys the relaxed atmosphere and the opportunities for outdoor activities.
- One notable positive outcome is that he feels more creatively inspired and motivated in his new environment.

Conclusion (Covers: Explain whether his/her move had a positive impact on you).

- Rajesh's move has also impacted me positively. It encouraged me to consider career opportunities beyond our current workplace and to embrace change more confidently.
- Despite the physical distance, our professional collaboration remains strong, and we often exchange ideas remotely.
- Overall, his move has been a rewarding journey of growth and exploration for both of us.
