

Describe When Someone Gave You Something: IELTS Cue Card

Cue Card Topic: Describe when someone gave you something

You Should Say:

Who gave it to you?
What was the thing?
When did you receive it?
How did you feel about it?

Describe When Someone Gave You Something: Sample Answers

Sample Answer 1

Introduction (Covers: Who gave it to you?):

- Last Diwali, my cousin Rohan surprised me with a thoughtful gift. Rohan and I have always been close, sharing many childhood memories together. His gift came as a complete surprise during our family Diwali celebration.
- Rohan has a knack for picking out the perfect presents, but this time, he outdid himself.
- As our entire extended family gathered to celebrate the festival of lights, Rohan handed me a beautifully wrapped package with a knowing smile.

Describing your experience/opinion/interest (Covers: What was the thing?):

- I unwrapped the gift and was thrilled to find a beautiful traditional kurta. The kurta was made of fine silk, my favourite colour, deep blue, and adorned with intricate embroidery.
- I had admired it in a store window but never thought I would own it. The craftsmanship was exquisite, and the fabric felt luxurious against my skin.
- I immediately knew this kurta would become a cherished part of my wardrobe, perfect for special occasions and festivities.

Key highlights (Covers: When did you receive it?):

- I received this special gift during our Diwali family gathering last year. When I opened it, everyone gathered around to see my reaction, adding to the festive atmosphere.
- Rohan's thoughtful selection showed how well he knows my taste and preferences. He remembered me admiring a similar kurta during one of our shopping trips, which made the gift even more special.
- We spent the evening sharing stories, enjoying delicious sweets, and celebrating, with the kurta being a highlight of the day for me.

Conclusion (Covers: How did you feel about it?):

- Receiving the kurta made me feel deeply appreciated and loved. It wasn't just about the item itself, but the thoughtfulness and effort Rohan put into choosing it for me.
- This gift created a cherished memory, strengthening our bond and adding joy to our Diwali celebration. Every time I wear that kurta, I am reminded of Rohan's kindness and our wonderful family gatherings.
- Overall, the experience of receiving such a meaningful gift highlighted the importance of thoughtfulness and the joy that comes from giving and receiving gifts with love and care. This kurta is not just a piece of clothing but a symbol of our enduring bond and our special moments as a family.

Sample Answer 2

Introduction (Who gave it to you?):

- Last summer, during my birthday celebration, my best friend Priya gave me an incredibly thoughtful gift. Priya and I have been friends since childhood, and she has always had a unique way of making my birthdays memorable.
- Her gift was a delightful surprise during a small gathering of close friends at my house.
- With a wide grin, Priya handed me a beautifully wrapped box, and I could see the excitement in her eyes.

Describing your experience/opinion/interest (What was the thing?):

- As I unwrapped the gift, I was thrilled to find a stunning pair of handcrafted earrings. These earrings were made of silver and adorned with intricate designs and small turquoise stones.
- I had been eyeing similar earrings in a local boutique for months but never got around to purchasing them. The design was exquisite and matched my taste perfectly.
- Priya knew how much I loved unique jewellery, and because of her thoughtfulness, these earrings were not only beautiful but also held sentimental value.

Key highlights (When did you receive it?):

- I received this special gift during my birthday celebration last summer. When I opened the box, all my friends gathered around to see my reaction, creating a warm and joyous atmosphere.
- Priya remembered me admiring these types of earrings during one of our shopping trips, which made the gift even more meaningful. She had secretly gone back to the boutique to buy them for me.
- We spent the rest of the evening celebrating, sharing laughter and stories, with the earrings being a highlight of my day.

Conclusion (How did you feel about it?):

- Receiving the earrings made me feel incredibly valued and loved. It wasn't just about the earrings themselves but Priya's thought and effort into choosing something she knew I would cherish.
- This gift created a lasting memory, deepening our friendship and adding joy to my birthday celebration. Whenever I wear those earrings, I am reminded of Priya's kindness and our incredible bond.
- Overall, the experience of receiving such a thoughtful gift highlighted the importance of friendship and the joy that comes from giving and receiving presents with love and care. These earrings are not just pieces of jewellery but symbols of our enduring friendship and our special moments.

Sample Answer 3

Introduction (Who gave it to you?):

- During my last trip to Jaipur, my uncle, who lives there, gave me an extraordinary gift. My uncle and I have always shared a close relationship, as he has always been more like a mentor to me.
- His gift came as a complete surprise during a family dinner at his home, where he was surrounded by my cousins and other relatives.
- With a warm smile, my uncle handed me a beautifully crafted wooden box, piquing my curiosity immediately.

Describing your experience/opinion/interest (What was the thing?):

- As I carefully opened the wooden box, I was astonished to find a vintage fountain pen inside. The pen was made of polished ebony wood with intricate silver inlays, exuding timeless elegance.
- I have always been passionate about writing and collecting pens, and this particular fountain pen was something I had admired but never owned. It was a perfect blend of functionality and artistry.
- My uncle knew about my love for writing and had chosen a gift that resonated deeply with my interests and hobbies, making it incredibly special to me.

Key highlights (When did you receive it?):

- I received this extraordinary gift during our family dinner in Jaipur last winter. The moment I opened the box, my family members gathered around to see my reaction, adding to the warmth of the occasion.
- My uncle had remembered my admiration for vintage pens from our conversations and had taken the effort to find this unique piece for me. This thoughtful gesture made the gift even more significant.
- The evening was filled with joy and conversation, with the fountain pen being a memorable highlight that I would always treasure.

Conclusion (How did you feel about it?):

- Receiving the vintage fountain pen made me feel profoundly appreciated and understood. It wasn't just about the pen itself but the thought and effort my uncle put into choosing something that resonated with me.
- This gift created a lasting memory, strengthening our bond and adding a special touch to my trip to Jaipur. Every time I use that pen, I am reminded of my uncle's kindness and our meaningful connection.
- Overall, the experience of receiving such a thoughtful gift highlighted the importance of understanding and caring in relationships. The fountain pen is not just a writing instrument but a symbol of our enduring bond and the special moments we have shared.

Describe When Someone Gave You Something: Follow-up Questions

Q1. What are the things young people like to buy?

Ans 1: Young people today are often drawn to the latest technology, such as smartphones, laptops, and gaming consoles. They also tend to spend money on fashion, including trendy clothes and accessories. Additionally, many young people enjoy buying experiences, such as concert tickets or travel packages, which they can share on social media.

Ans 2: Young people frequently purchase gadgets like tablets and smartwatches. They are also keen on fitness products, including gym memberships and sports gear. Moreover, a growing trend among youngsters to buy sustainable and eco-friendly products reflects their increasing awareness of environmental issues.

Q2. How do your friends influence your shopping choice?

Ans 1: My friends significantly influence my shopping choices, especially regarding fashion and technology. If a friend recommends a particular brand or product, I will try it. We often share our experiences and reviews, which helps us make more informed purchasing decisions.

Ans 2: Friends play a big role in my shopping habits. For instance, if a friend buys something and really likes it, I often consider getting it, too. We also go shopping together, and their opinions can sway my choices, mainly when I'm unsure about a purchase.

Q3. Is consumption important to a country?

Ans 1: Yes, consumption is crucial to a country's economy. It drives demand for goods and services, stimulating production and job creation. High levels of consumer spending can lead to economic growth and stability as businesses thrive and the government collects more taxes.

Ans 2: Consumption plays a vital role in a country's economic health. It fuels the economy by increasing demand, which leads to more production and employment opportunities. Moreover, consumer spending helps generate revenue for the government through taxes, enabling better public services and infrastructure.

Q4. What should parents do when their children ask for things their friends have?

Ans 1: Parents should explain the value of money and the importance of making thoughtful purchasing decisions. It is crucial to teach children that they can't always have everything they want. Parents can also encourage their children to set savings goals for items they desire, fostering financial responsibility.

Ans 2: When children ask for things their friends have, parents should openly discuss needs versus wants. They should help their children understand the importance of budgeting and saving. Additionally, parents might consider rewarding their children for good behaviour or achievements rather than giving in to every request.